Dear Pastors & Local Sabbath School Superintendents,

The House of God Sabbath School Department is pleased to announce the First Annual Reading 4 Christ Summer Reading Program for House of God children and youth. I would love for your children and youth to actively participate in the reading program. Youth participating in the program will receive special recognition at the upcoming 90th Annual General Convocation during Sabbath School.

The program requirements are:

- Children or youth should read as many books as they can or would like;
- The books should be Christian or Religious Fiction or Non-Fiction (A suggested list of authors is provided, by age group. You are not limited to this list of authors.);
- Students will be asked to write a very short report on each book (a format is provided); and
- The deadline for reading all books is Sunday, July 19, 2009.

Children or youth interested in participating in this program should be given: the list authors, the Book Report Form, and the "Reading 4 Christ Reading List" sheet. The Reading 4 Christ Reading List sheet is intended to help participants keep a record of the books they read.

I hope that parents will encourage their children to participate in the Reading 4 Christ Summer Reading Program and help select books and ensure the reports are completed. Sabbath School Teachers should provide regular progress updates to the local Sabbath School Superintendent. My goal is to sponsor this program each year to make students aware that reading is fun, informative and important.

If you have questions, please contact me at David.Cartwright@marshall.edu or 304-417-5227.

Sincerely,

Vicar Bishop David Cartwright
National Sabbath School Superintendent
